

Family income level where the recipient will no longer receive the GST/HST credit

If your family net income amount is equal to or exceeds the amount indicated in the table below, you will not be entitled to a GST/HST credit payment.

The universal child care benefit (UCCB) and/or registered disability savings plan (RDSP) will not be included as part of your adjusted family net income in the calculation of your GST/HST credit.

Income levels are for the 2016 tax year. If you are entitled, GST/HST credit payments for this tax year begin in July 2017.
